Obituary

Myra A. Jacobs was born May 12, 1909 in Cartiage, Arkansas, Dallas County to the late Steven Thompson and Mary Ellen Jimerson-Thompson . Myra was the eldest surviving child of 14 children from this union. On October 3, 1928, Myra was united in marriage to the late Charlie Edward Jacobs and they remained married for forty-five years until his death in 1973.

Mother Jacobs as she was fondly called, was saved in 1932 under the leadership of the late Bishop Ben Patilla of the Patilla Temple Church of God in Christ in Ivan, Arkansas. She served faithfully until she moved to Las Vegas in 1942 where she served under the late Bishop C.C. Cox, nephew of Mother Mattie McGlothen.

In October 1944, the couple came to Richmond where Mr. Jacobs found work in the shipyards. Upon arriving in Richmond, Mother Jacobs immediately united with McGlothen Temple Church of God in Christ under the leadership of Bishop G.W. McGlothen. She served as the President of Hospitality until she was appointed Church Mother in 1954. She served faithfully until her health began to fail. She served under Bishop G.W. McGlothen and Bishop C. Davis (both preceded her in death). She also served under the current Pastor Supt. J. Jennings. She served in the Richmond District as President of the Mothers Board under Bishop C. Davis and District Missionary M. Ficklin. She served California Northwest Jurisdiction as a member of the Mothers Board under Bishop R. Martin and Dr. M. McGlothen.

Among her other accomplishments, she was a member of the Cooks Union, Local #28 for 30 years. She was a Chef at Hotel Don of Richmond for many years and also worked for General Mills and was the first minority hired in Northern California.

Mother Myra A. Jacobs leaves to mourn: her two daughters, Derrell A. McKinney of Richmond, California and Cynthia Wells of Sacramento, California; one brother, Vance Thompson of Richmond, California; sisters, Geraldine Smith, Birdie Garnett, and Catheryn McBride, all of Richmond, California; seven grand and two great grandchildren. She also leaves a very special daughter and granddaughter, Sandra and Melinda Miller and a special son, Edward Frazier; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

*I came, I stayed, I worked,
I served, I loved with a heart's strong will, I wanted to serve both God and man, And I tried my task to fulfill.
If I have failed in my earthly work, my Father will understand.
My friends, I ask to look and see...
That I wanted God's love to show in me.*

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you very much, whatever the part.
